AMENDMENT

Intended to be proposed by Mr. HUGHES (for himself, Mr. CRANSTON, Mr. GOODELL, and Mr. McGOVERN), to H.R. 17123, an Act to authorize appropriations during the fiscal year 1971 for procurement of aircraft, missiles, naval vessels, and tracked combat vehicles, and other weapons, and research, development, test, and evaluation for the Armed Forces, and to prescribe the authorized personnel strength of the Selected Reserve of each Reserve component of the Armed Forces, and for other purposes, viz: At the appropriate place in the bill, insert a new section as follows:

- 1 SEC. . (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of
- 2 law, and except as provided in subsection (b) of this sec-
- 3 tion or except as the Congress may specifically provide
- 4 otherwise by law hereafter enacted, no funds appropriated

Amdt. No. 651

1 pursuant to this or any other Act may be expended after 2 December 31, 1970, for the purpose of supporting or main-3 taining in any foreign country any person involuntarily in-4 ducted into the Armed Force of the United States if there is 5 in existence in such country a state of war, a civil rebellion,
6 or an armed conflict.

7 (b) The provisions of subsection (a) of this section 8 shall be inapplicable during any period of war or national 9 emergency declared by the Congress after the date of enact-
10 ment of this Act. The provisions of such subsection shall not 11 apply in the case of the assignment to duty in any foreign 12 country described in such subsection of any person involun-
13 tarily inducted into the Armed Forces of the United States
14 if such person (1) volunteers for duty in such country, or 15 (2) is serving in the Armed Forces under a voluntary
16 extension of his service obligation after having been involun-
17 tarily inducted.
